

Barker Gotelee's property lawyers act for a wide range of clients:

- Landowners
- Farmers
- Developers
- Housing Associations
- Businesses
- Private Individuals

The transactions we handle are diverse, often complex and require specialist knowledge and experience.

Whatever the transaction, we aim to forge a close working relationship with each client based on good communication, pro-active advice and value for money.

We are well-known nationally for our expertise in agricultural issues and our property team are acknowledged leaders in this area.

We also act for a number of regional developers in acquiring sites and carrying out plot sales and for a well known housing association developing smaller sites in rural areas.

Our property team are pleased to handle residential transactions including remortgages to which the same high degree of skill and attention will be given.
