We are particularly well known in agriculture and road haulage, and our commercial work spreads across many different types of business. We provide a complete service, including employment, partnership, commercial agreements, commercial property, disputes, sales and purchases of businesses and passing on the business to the next generation.

A big part of our work is private client, including tax and family trusts, wills and probate and residential property. We also provide specialist advice on the affairs of the elderly and disputes about wills and trusts. We have skilled and experienced matrimonial specialists.

We aim to give clear and practical advice and work hard to help. We will explain how we will charge for our work at the outset and always aim to provide value for money in what we do.
